Meeting called to order by President Brittany Rohr at 7:02

Attendance: Brittany Rohr, Kelley Nguyen, Liza Hunter, Nicole Walker, Stacey Thompson, Mary Kluck, Shane Caiola, Amy Daughenbaugh, and Trisha Greenfield.

Minutes: The minutes from the 3/14/18 meeting were read and accepted (Motion by Stacey Thompson and seconded by Amy Daughenbaugh)

Treasurer's Report given by Brittany Rohr

- Amazon Smile exceeded budget this year.
- Box Tops will fall short this year.
- Yearbook money has started to come in. We still need to process online orders.
- Beef-a-Roo Dinner Night Out finished above budget.
- School pictures will finish above budget this year.
- Butter Braids finished above budget.

Principal's Report given by Shane Caiola

- PARCC was finished today and all makeup testing has also been completed. Everything went smoothly. Chromebooks and computer lab were used. Currently, there are 4 classrooms that are 1:1 with Chromebooks.
- Ms. Mowbray and Ms. Farnsworth's classes have been making blankets for cancer patients after collecting money school-wide. Mrs. Coletta created a message that will be attached to all of the blankets when they are distributed to local cancer patients.
- Scoopie Night for Stone Creek is Monday.
- Last year Stone Creek used the principal's fund for the online Raz Kids program. The plan is to re-purchase this program next year for the teachers.

Old Business

- Butter braids ended last month. Two pick up nights were offered and all orders were picked up on time.
- Family Movie Night was well attended. Money was spent for the movie and the license. We collected items for Noah's Arc was and a lot of dog toys and cat food were donated. In addition, $40 was raised.
- Culvers Nights went well. LW seemed to be the busiest it has been in years. The remaining schools will finish this month. Pint cards were a huge success. LW sold 69 cards for a profit of $276. We have 31 cards left and we will get another 50 for SC. Funds raised through the cards will be used for the fifth grade Timber-Lee trip.
- Mother/ Son event currently has 8 volunteers, but more are still needed. Glowsticks have been purchased. DJ is bringing photo booth.
- The scholarship committee has 8 applicants. A winner will be chosen soon.
- Golf 4 the Kids is coming up May 19th. Notes were sent to teachers about earning volunteer hours by golfing. Teachers have been very generous by donating baskets. Businesses are being asked for raffle items and to become a hole sponsor. Prizes are given to 1st, 2nd, and 3rd prize golfing teams. We currently have 6-8 sponsors.
- GEM nominations are coming up soon.
- Candy Bar sales started last week. Sales go through the end of this month.

Questions and Comments

- Our door prize winner was Stacey Thompson
